SPACES | CONTEMPORARY CLOISTER

LESS IS MORE UNDER THIS TRELLISED SANCTUARY.

Finding an intimate escape amongst the throngs of a soirée was the inspiration for this minimalist space. The outdoor fireplace is just one of many multifaceted gathering areas in DeAnna and Tom Harmon's Tampa home. Architect David Balber used a modern Renaissance style on the Mediterranean hillside design, creating a milieu for entertaining. "I attended a party at the home after it was completed, and it was a pleasure to see people enjoying the space just as I envisioned it," Balber says. David Balber Architecture LLC, Tampa (800-575-5216, davidbalberarchitecture.com)
